

Denis LeBlanc

I don't profess to be an expert on classical music, nor is it my music of choice (but then again I don't have a music of choice). Richard Gale, with his distinctive voice and style gave you a better understanding of the music and gave faces and personality to those responsible. He simple made you enjoy and appreciate the listening experience.